- to respond to any problems you report with our website;
- For processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.
- For Digitie to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations)
- Special categories of personal data (such as information about your health) will be processed where Digitie needs to carry out its legal obligations; to run the business; where the processing is necessary for the assessment of your working capacity, occupational health or obtaining a medical diagnosis; or where it is needed in the public interest (such as equal opportunities monitoring). In exceptional circumstances, we may process this data with your explicit consent.

Sharing your personal data

We will only share your data where it is required in order to effectively offer or provide our professional services to you. There are also organisations who will have access to your data due to the services they provide to Digitie such as IT support companies, email and phone service providers and external auditors. While we may not actively share your specific data with these firms we will ensure that when providing access to any data systems, the security of that data is considered and protected at all times.

Sharing your data outside the European Union

We shall not be sharing data outside of the European Union.

How long will we keep your data?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal information are available in our Master Document List/Data Retention and Erasure Procedure which is available from the Office Manager. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements

Your personal data rights

In respect of your personal data being processed by Digitie:

- You have the right to ask us what personal data we are processing about you and request access to or copies of that information.
- You have the right to request that your personal data which is inaccurate, or incomplete is rectified.
- You have the right to request that your personal data is deleted however we may have the right to continue processing your data in certain circumstances.
- You have the right to request that your data is given to you in a format that can be used by another controller and where possible that this is sent directly to the other controller by us.
- Where the processing relies upon your consent or if you are under 18 the consent of an adult bringing the claim on your behalf then the person giving consent has the right to withdraw this at any time.
- You have the right to object to the processing of your data where the grounds we rely upon are our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party. Upon receiving an expression of objection, we will review the grounds for processing and respond accordingly. Where we are processing for direct marketing purposes you have the right to object at any time and we will cease processing for such purposes where an objection is received.
- You have the right not to be subject to automated decision-making processes including profiling however Digitie does not employ any automated decision-making processes.
- You have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data:
 - where the accuracy is contested while this is investigated;
 - where the processing is unlawful, but you do not want the data to be deleted;
 - where we no longer need to process the data, but you would like us to store it without further processing for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
 - where you have objected to the processing and we are processing for our legitimate interests while it is established if our interests override your rights.

We will respond to your request in relation to any of the above rights within one month of us receiving your request unless there is likely to be a delay providing the information or response in which case we will notify you within one month of receiving the request. There will be no fee payable for us to provide you with the information requested unless the request is for duplicate copies of documents previously provided to you or we feel the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive. If a request is manifestly unfounded or excessive we may refuse to provide the data rather than charging a fee. Where a fee is charged it will reflect the administrative costs involved in providing you with the information.

We may require identification from you for security purposes before providing any information or acting on requests. Where this is required we will notify you within one month of receipt of your request.

Where you make a request to us electronically we will endeavour to respond electronically. If you would prefer not to receive the information electronically you should request this.
